Corporate Governance Statement
For the Year Ended 30 June 2020

Updated August 2020

---

The objective of the Board of Advance NanoTek Limited (“the Company”) is to create and deliver long term shareholder value through a range of diversified but interrelated activities around the manufacturing and distribution of zinc oxide dispersions, zinc oxide powder products, Alusion products and end formulation products through its ZinXation brand.

Advance NanoTek Limited and its subsidiaries operate as a consolidated entity under a unified Board and management. As such, the Board’s corporate Governance arrangements apply to all entities with the Group (“the Group”).

Principle 1: Lay solid foundations for management and oversight

Role of the Board and Management

The Board of Directors is responsible for the corporate Governance of the Company. The Board provides strategic guidance for the Company, and effective oversight to management. The Board guides and monitors the business and affairs of the Group on behalf of the shareholders by whom they are elected and to whom they are accountable.

The roles and responsibilities of the Board (Board Charter), Board Committees and senior management have been established through Board approved Charters that are available in the Corporate Governance section of the website at www.advancenanotek.com.

To assist it in carrying out its responsibilities, the Board has established several standing Board Committees of its members. The Chairman of each Board Committee reports on any matters of substance at the next full Board Meeting. Membership of Board Committees and attendance at Board and Board Committee meetings is tabulated in the Directors’ Report in the Annual Report.

The Board Committees are:

- Audit and Risk Committee
- Governances and Remuneration Committee

Information on the Directors is contained in the Directors’ Report in the Annual Report on page 7.

Company Secretaries

The Company Secretaries are appointed and removed by the Board and are responsible for establishing and maintaining the appropriate support mechanisms to enable the Board to function effectively. The Company Secretary is also responsible for ensuring the Board procedures are complied with and advising the Board on Governance matters. All Directors have access to the Company Secretary for advice and support services as required and is accountable to the Board through the Chairman.

Independent Advice

Each Director and Board Committee has the right of access to relevant Group information and the executive management team. Directors may seek independent professional advice at the Group's expense with approval from all Directors at a Director's meeting. A copy of advice received by the Director is made available to all other members of the Board.

Diversity Policy

The Board is committed to a diverse workplace environment. Despite only having 64 employees, its objectives are as follows.

- Aim to have >20% of the workforce as females as a total in all areas of the business.
- Aim to have >30% of the workforce in senior roles as female employees.

The Board of Directors ("the Board") of Advance NanoTek Limited ACN 079 845 855 ("the Company") has adopted the following Diversity Policy.

1. The Company is an equal opportunity employer and supports the principle of equal employment opportunity for all staff at all levels of employment regardless of gender, marital or family status. Sexual orientation, gender identity, age, disability, ethnicity, religious beliefs, cultural background, socioeconomic background, perspective and experience.
2. The Company is committed to providing a working environment which is free from discrimination, bullying, victimisation, harassment and sexual harassment in accordance with Commonwealth and State Legislation.
3. Recruitment practices are in place whereby a diverse range of candidates are considered, and no conscious or unconscious bias occurs in the selection of candidates.
4. The Board of Directors will review its Diversity Policy annually.
5. The Board as at 30 June 2020 has:
  - 27% of all employees are female.
  - 25% of senior roles are female employees.
6. The board has one female Director.

Principle 2: Structure the Board to add Value

Directors

The Board of Advance NanoTek Limited presently comprises of two non-executive Directors, two of whom are independent and one executive Director.

- Lev Mizikovsky – 6 years' service
- Rade Dudurovic – 9 years' service
- Geoff Acton – 4 years' service
- Laurie Lefcourt – 1 years' service

The Board is fully aware of the ASX Corporate Governance Council Principles and Recommendations, and the reasons behind them. However, as the ASX Corporate Governance Council (“Council”) expressly recognises, different entities may legitimately adopt different Governance practices, based on a range of factors, including their size, complexity, history and corporate culture. For that reason, the Principles and Recommendations are not mandatory and do not seek to prescribe the corporate Governance practices that a listed entity must adopt.

The diversity and skill set of the Board, as set out in the skills matrix, highlights the level of industry and commercial experience currently on the Board. The skills matrix of the Board is detailed in the Board Charter on the Company’s website.

The current Directors of the Company are listed in the Directors’ Report with a brief description of their qualifications, experience, special responsibilities and status.

Chairman of the Board

Principle 7: Recognise and manage risk

The Board has ultimate responsibility for risk management, compliance and control functions across the Group. These functions are aligned with the Company's business objectives. The Company has in place internal controls intended to identify and manage significant business risks.

As noted under Principle 4, the Board has established an Audit and Risk Committee to identify those areas of risk which are most likely to cause major disruption and damage to the business of the Group and to implement, with Board approval, plans and procedures which will mitigate any damage.

1. The Responsibilities of the Board:

- The Board is responsible for oversight and review of the Company's risk management strategy to ensure it is sufficiently clear and in line with the Company's overall risk tolerance and expectation of stakeholders and for reporting to stakeholders on how risks are managed.
- Monitoring management performance against the entity's risk management framework, including whether it is operating within the risk appetite set by the Board.
- Review any material incident involving fraud or a breakdown of the entity's risk controls and the "lessons learned".
- Receive reports from management on new and emerging sources of risk and the risk controls and mitigation measures that management has put in place to deal with those risks.
- Oversee the entity's insurance program, having regard to the entity's business and the insurable risks associated with its business.

2. The Board undertakes a risk review of the company annually and has established a risk matrix.

3. The Board reviews its internal controls annually.

4. The company currently has no significant exposure to environment or social risks.

Principle 8: Remunerate fairly and responsibly

The Company intends to ensure that the level and composition of remuneration is sufficient and reasonable and that its relationship to corporate and individual performance is defined.

As noted under Principle 2, the Board has established a Nomination and Remuneration Committee to review and determine, among other things, remuneration policies and packages applicable to any Executive Directors, the Company Secretary and Senior Executives. The Committee's Charter is available on the Company's website. Details of the remuneration of Directors and key executives are set out in the Annual Report.

This Committee is concerned with recommending remuneration policy which:

- Motivates Directors and management to pursue the long-term growth and success of the Company within an appropriate control framework.
- Demonstrates a clear relationship between key executive performance and remuneration.

The activities of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee may include:

- Assessing, and periodically reviewing, appropriate remuneration policies, levels and packages. Remuneration packages may include share schemes, incentive performance packages, superannuation entitlements and fringe benefits and any other items considered appropriate by the Committee.
- Setting the remuneration for the Managing Director.
- Proposing Director Remuneration for ratification by shareholders.
- Monitoring the implementation by the Company of its remuneration policies.
- Undertaking periodic reviews of the job description and performance of the employees.
- Managing complaints, grievances and disciplinary processes as they affect senior executives.
